Lora J. DeFore Memorial Scholarship

The Lora J. DeFore Memorial Endowed Scholarship is a tribute to the popular Mississippi State instructor known for encouraging students to seek demanding internships. She taught in the Department of Communication for 20 years. She died in 2009 following a long battle with cancer.

Open to MSU communication majors, the scholarship is designed to assist with relocation costs associated with the summer internships, which scholars must secure through individual initiatives. Participants must have completed at least 45 hours of academic coursework with an overall 3.0 (based on a 4.0 scale) grade-point average.

Scholar Testimonials:

"Receiving the Lora J. DeFore Memorial Endowed Scholarship solely made my summer internship experience possible. The costs associated with unpaid internships can quickly become overwhelming. However, with the Lora J. DeFore Memorial Endowed Scholarship I was able to accept an internship in Dallas where I worked at one of Texas's top communications firms, LDWWgroup. I am grateful to have been chosen as a DeFore scholar and the incomparable experience that it provided to me."

- Ashley M. Madison, Public Relations, 2016

"Receiving the Lora DeFore Scholarship was a huge blessing. New York City is an expensive place to live and accepting an unpaid internship there would have been difficult to finance on my own. With the assistance, I was able to afford living in an apartment near Fox News where I worked. These kinds of opportunities may come only once in a lifetime, so I am thankful that this scholarship allowed me to take the internship of my dreams."

-Megan McKeown, Broadcast Journalism, 2013
